NEVERMORE

PRESENTED BY OGD + THE VOXEL

NEVERMORE is a water-drenched descent into the grim and wondrous imagination of Edgar Allan Poe. Drawing from his haunting poetry and darkly revelatory tales, the work transforms The Voxel--Baltimore's premiere space for theatrical incubation and new work-- into a shifting landscape of memory, downpours, obsession, and beauty, where movement, light, and madness blur the boundary between the living and the spectral.

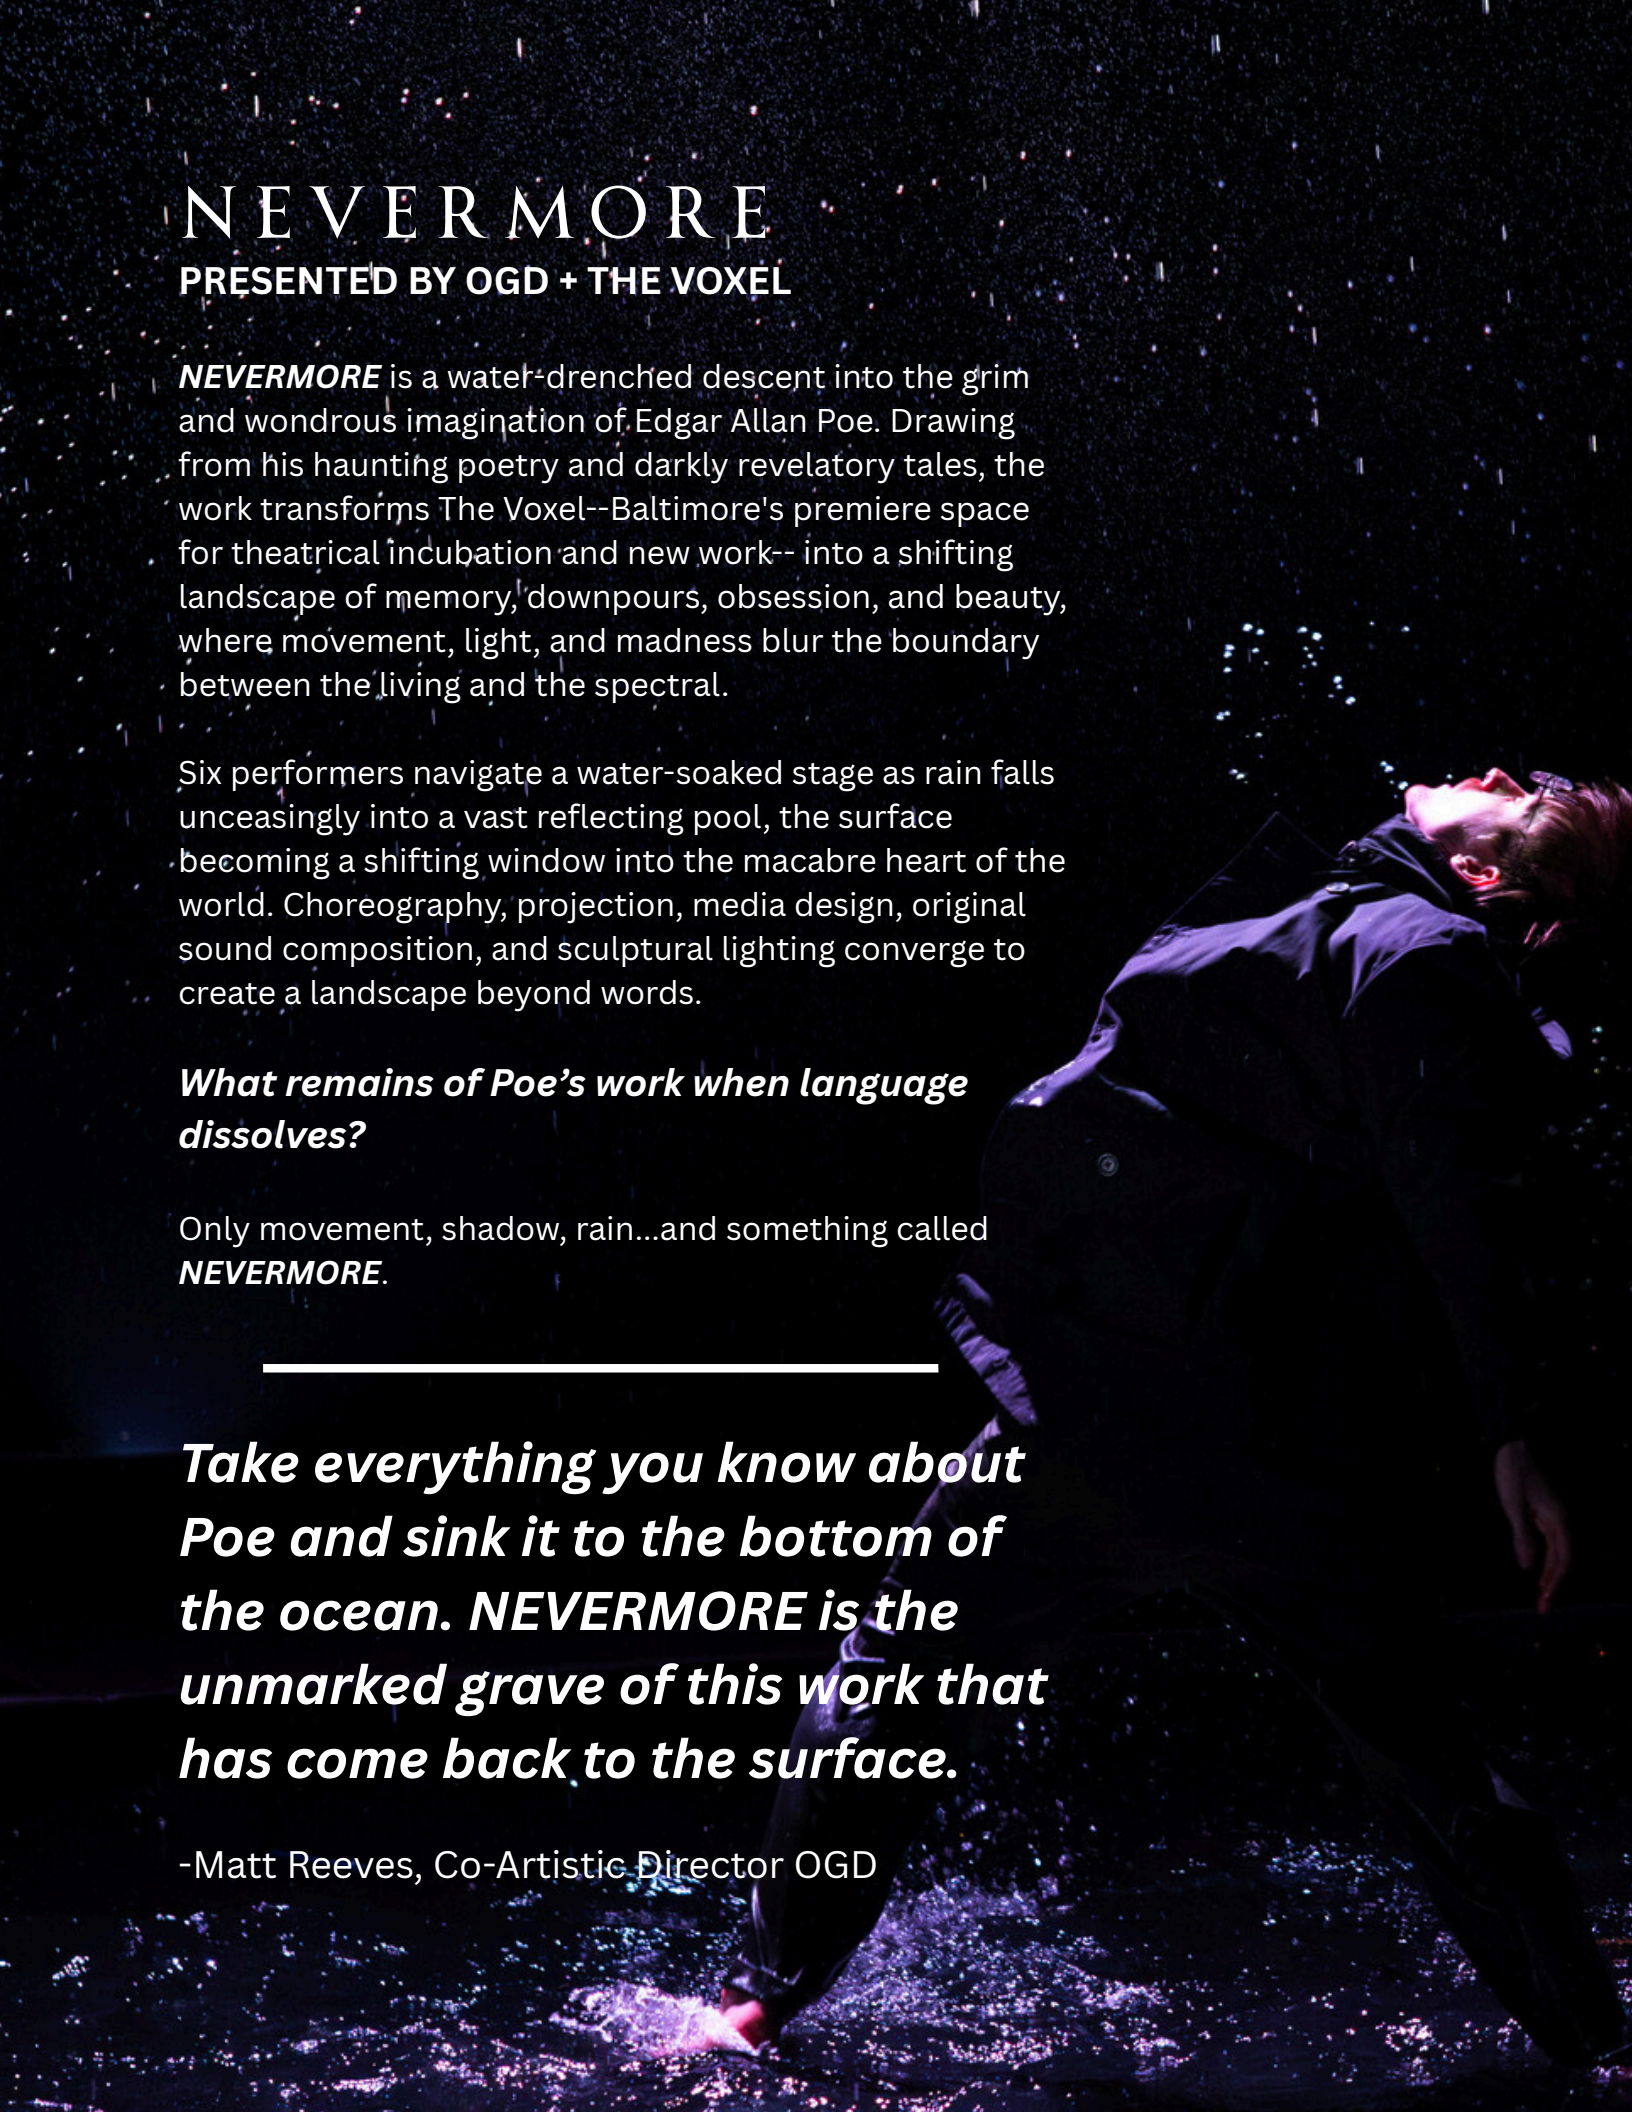

Six performers navigate a water-soaked stage as rain falls unceasingly into a vast reflecting pool, the surface becoming a shifting window into the macabre heart of the world. Choreography, projection, media design, original sound composition, and sculptural lighting converge to create a landscape beyond words.

What remains of Poe's work when language dissolves?

Only movement, shadow, rain...and something called NEVERMORE.

Take everything you know about Poe and sink it to the bottom of the ocean. NEVERMORE is the unmarked grave of this work that has come back to the surface.

-Matt Reeves, Co-Artistic Director OGD

ABOUT ORANGE GROVE DANCE

Orange Grove Dance (OGD) is an award-winning Baltimore/DC-based interdisciplinary performance company led by Artistic Directors Colette Krogol and Matt Reeves. Celebrated for creating immersive experiences where choreography, music, film, lighting, and emerging technologies converge, OGD has presented work throughout the United States and internationally, earning recognition for its innovative artistic vision and collaborative approach. Their work has been featured by organizations including the Edinburgh Futures Institute, Dance Place, The Voxel, and the Kennedy Center.

In 2026, Krogol and Reeves were featured in BmoreArt's The Future issue, recognizing artists shaping the next chapter of Baltimore's creative landscape.

THE VOXEL

The Voxel is a theater, incubator, and resource for performing artists in Baltimore and across the country, as well as the teaching center and research laboratory of Figure 53 — a small but mighty Baltimore company whose software runs live performances in over 100 countries around the world. The Voxel also publishes charmcity.theater.
